Oliver & Bonacini Hospitality wanted its new Chinook Centre restaurant to bring something entirely different to the Calgary fine dining scene – a fun, yet upscale, venue that would offer a variety of private dining experiences. This Italian restaurant’s nostalgic palette bridges cozy with a down-to-earth decadence at the Saks Fifth Avenue within Calgary’s Chinook Centre. Here, lively blues wrap the 158-seat space, where eyes catch brass highlights that are filled with rustic Italian fair. The rich and varied material palette, coupled with a flexible floor plan, sets the stage for a mixture of private dining exclusivity and a fun speakeasy vibe for all guests. As you walk through the front door, patrons are immediately welcomed by the hostess at the bar.
